Hi Corbin,
I didn't catch that! The 2017 draft EJ analysis has that statement on p. 22 under section 4.0, not 5.0, like they said.
I'll think about how to address the Class V deep injection wells in that paragraph.
Thanks for catching those.

Hi Valois,

Powertech's first comment on the EJ analysis references language ("Certain types of UIC permits have been identified as priority permits, including permits for Class V deep injection wells and Class III ISR wells") on pgs. 21-22 (section 5.0) of the EJ analysis. The language they are referring to is actually on pg 17 (section 4.1) of the EJ analysis. Is it possible that they were looking at the wrong version of the EJ analysis?

Thanks,

Hi Corbin,

I reviewed the Powertech EJ comments and added some suggestions for how to characterize the comments and ideas for the response.

The first comment references a statement from the R8 UIC Program EJ implementation plan, which I have attached.

The rest of the comments relate to comments Powertech had for changes to Class III Area Permit requirements.
